- b) Discharge and carry out the business and affairs of the corporation subject to the guidance of the president and vice president/chief operating officer, and exercise such other power and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

Article IV Executive Committee

Section 1. MEMBERSHIP: The executive committee shall consist of the president, or designee, vice president/ chief operating officer/secretary, chief financial officer, one (1) student director one (1) faculty director, and one (1) staff director of the corporation. The executive committee student, faculty, and staff directors shall be elected by the board of directors and the tenure of office shall be for one (1) year commencing at the seating of the board in September. The board of directors shall have authority to delegate to the executive committee, except as otherwise prohibited by law, any of the powers and authority of the board in the control and management of the business and affairs of this corporation including, but not limited to, the authority to make and enter into contracts and agreements on behalf of the corporation. The board of directors shall formulate the general policies of the corporation, and these policies shall be carried out by the officers of the corporation or by the executive committee. Fifty percent (50%) of the then members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 2. MEETINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Meetings of the executive committee may be called for any purpose by any member of the executive committee. All meetings of the executive committee, when acting in the capacity of or on behalf of the board of directors, shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of California Open Meeting Laws.

Article V Restricted Funds

Section 1. Sonoma State Enterprises, Inc., may receive funds (some through contract), which have been earmarked for specific purposes and functions. The corporation, acting through its officers, will ensure that such funds are not commingled.

Article VI Members

Section 1. QUALIFICATIONS: The persons constituting the board of directors of this corporation shall be all of the members of this corporation.

Section 2. CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP: There shall be but one class of membership and the rights, interests and privileges of each member shall be equal.

Section 3. DUES AND ASSESSMENTS: No member shall be liable for any dues or assessments, and this corporation shall levy no dues or assessments upon any member.

Article VII Indemnification

Section 1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, this corporation will indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and other persons described in Corporations Code section 5238(a), including persons formerly occupying any such positions, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any “proceeding,” as that term is used in that section, and including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. “Expenses,” as used in this bylaw, shall have the same meaning as in that section of the Corporation Code.

On written request to the Board by any person seeking indemnification under Corporations Code section 5238(b) or 5238(c), the Board shall promptly decide under Corporations Code section 5238(e) whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Corporations Code 5238(b) or 5238(c) has been met. If so, the Board shall authorize indemnification.

If the Board cannot authorize indemnification, because the number of directors who are parties to the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is sought prevents the formation of a quorum of directors who are not parties to that proceeding, the Board shall promptly call a meeting of members. At that meeting, the members shall determine under Corporations Code section 5238(e) whether the applicable standard of conduct has been met and, if so, the members present at the meeting in person or by proxy shall authorize indemnification.

If the members cannot authorize indemnification, because under Corporations Code section 5238(e) and 5034 the number of members who are parties to the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is sought prevents the formation of a quorum of members who are not parties to the proceedings, indemnification may only be authorized under Corporations Code section 5238(e) by the court in which the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is or was pending, upon application made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the Corporation. Upon such application, the court will determine whether the applicable standard of care was met.

To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under this Section of these bylaws in defending any proceeding covered by this Section shall be advanced by the Corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately found that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation for those expenses.

Article VII Amendment of Bylaws

Section 1. These bylaws may be amended or repealed and new bylaws adopted by the written consent of members entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power, or by a vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly called for the purpose and at which a quorum is present; provided, however, that Sections 1 and 2 of Article II of these bylaws shall be amended or repealed only by the vote of at least two-thirds of the directors present at a meeting duly called for that purpose and at which a quorum is present.

Article IX Fiscal Year

Section 1. The fiscal year of said corporation shall be from July 1 through June 30

Article X Location and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws

Section 1. The original or a copy of the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation and of these bylaws, as currently amended, shall be kept at the principal office of this corporation within this state and the same shall be open to inspection by the members of this corporation at all reasonable times during office hours.
